The image displays a variety of vintage international mail items. On the left, a large, mostly blank envelope is visible. In the center, there are several postcards and envelopes with handwritten addresses in various languages, including "Mr. Robert ...", "Mr. ...", "Mr. ...", and "Mr. ...". One postcard features a circular postmark from "SARAJEVO" and a red stamp. Another envelope has a circular postmark from "SARAJEVO" and a red stamp. A small label on the right side of the image reads "COAT OF ARMS TO AUSTRIA 1911" and "REGISTERED". The bottom left corner of the image contains the text "Harmers International, Inc.".

A collection of vintage envelopes and letters, some with stamps and handwritten addresses, displayed on a dark surface. The items are arranged in several vertical stacks. The envelopes are mostly cream-colored and feature various postage stamps, including red and green ones. Some have circular postmarks and handwritten addresses in cursive. One envelope on the right has a 'REGISTERED' stamp. The background is dark, making the light-colored paper stand out.

The image displays a large collection of vintage postcards and envelopes, many with intricate stamps and handwritten addresses. The items are arranged in several vertical stacks. The top-left stack features a postcard with a red circular stamp and the address "San Francisco, Cal." written in cursive. Below it is another postcard with a blue circular postmark dated "OCT 17 1894" and the name "Mr. James Reynolds". The middle stack includes a "POST CARD" with a red stamp and the address "Mr. James Reynolds, Spanish Consulate". Below that is a "POST CARD" with a red stamp and the address "Mr. James Reynolds, Spanish Consulate". The bottom stack shows a "POST CARD" with a red stamp and the address "Mr. James Reynolds, Spanish Consulate". Other visible postcards include one with a green stamp and the address "Leipzig, Deutschland", and another with a red stamp and the address "London, England". The stamps are various colors and designs, including circular postmarks and rectangular stamps. The handwriting is in cursive and varies in legibility. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved collection of historical mail.

The image shows a collection of vintage envelopes and letters. On the left, a stack of envelopes includes one with the text "On His Majesty's Service" and another with "110 Strand White, 12 Grosvenor Road, London, England". In the center, there are several envelopes with various stamps, including a purple one and a green one with "26 Grosvenor Road". On the right, a stack of envelopes features a prominent "OPENED BY" stamp and a letter with the address "Mrs. Egley, 15 Castle Leigh Rd, West Park, Leeds". The envelopes are arranged in a way that shows their front and back sides, highlighting their historical and philatelic value.
